24ENG111 English II

Set 1

Synonyms

1. Delegate: Assign, Entrust, Hand over, Allocate
2. Negotiate: Bargain, Discuss, Mediate, Settle, Confer
3. Clarify: Explain, Elucidate, Simplify, Expound, Illuminate
4. Resolve: Settle, Solve, Address, Fix, Rectify
5. Collaborate: Partner, Team up, Join forces, Work together

Antonyms

1. Accept: Reject, Decline, Refuse, Deny, Disapprove
2. Flexible: Rigid, Inflexible, Stiff, Unyielding, Fixed
3. Confident: Doubtful, Uncertain, Hesitant, Insecure, Timid
4. Progress: Regress, Decline, Deteriorate, Stall, Backtrack
5. Open: Closed, Secretive, Concealed, Restricted, Guarded

One-word substitutes

1. Give a suggestion: Propose
2. Take responsibility for: Own, account for
3. Give an explanation: Clarify
4. Help someone with a task: Assist, facilitate
5. Provide feedback: Review

Words often confused

1. Accept vs. Except: "Accept" means to agree or receive, while "except" means to exclude.
2. Compliment vs. Complement: "Compliment" refers to praise, while "complement" means something that completes or enhances.
3. Advise vs. Advice: "Advise" is the verb (to suggest), while "advice" is the noun (suggestion).
4. Affect vs. Effect: "Affect" is a verb (to influence), while "effect" is a noun (a result).
5. Stationary vs. Stationery: "Stationary" means not moving, while "stationery" refers to paper and office supplies.

24ENG111 English II

Set 2

Synonyms (Similar Meaning Words)

1. Express- Articulate, Enunciate, Convey, Communicate, Pronounce
2. Reduce- Mitigate, Alleviate, Diminish, Ease, Lessen
3. Agree- Concur, Approve, Consent, Endorse, Assent
4. Speed up- Expedite, Accelerate, Hasten, Quicken, Facilitate
5. Examine- Scrutinize, Inspect, Analyze, Probe, Investigate

Antonyms (Opposite Meaning Words)

1. Concise → Wordy, Lengthy, Redundant, Elaborate, Rambling
2. Transparent → Opaque, Ambiguous, Vague, Concealed
3. Validate → Refute, Disprove, Reject, Deny, Contradict
4. Diligent → Negligent, Careless, Indolent, Sloppy, Inattentive
5. Assertive → Passive, Submissive, Timid, Hesitant, Reserved

Words Often Confused

1. Discreet vs. Discrete: "Discreet" means tactful or careful, while "Discrete" means separate or distinct.
2. Elicit vs. Illicit: "Elicit" means to draw out information, while "Illicit" means illegal or forbidden.
3. Imply vs. Infer: "Imply" means to suggest indirectly, while "Infer" means to deduce from information given.
4. Principle vs. Principal: "Principle" is a rule or belief, while "Principal" is the head of an institution or an amount of money.
5. Eminent vs. Imminent: "Eminent" means distinguished or famous, while "Imminent" means about to happen soon.

One-word substitutes

1. Make something worse - Aggravate
2. Formally approve or confirm - Ratify
3. Make something clearer → Expound
4. Come to an agreement → Reconcile
5. Put into practice → Implement

24ENG111 English II

Vocabulary development- Set 4

Synonyms

1. Persuade – Convince, Influence, Induce, Sway, Prompt
2. Evaluate – Assess, Appraise, Measure, Analyze, Examine
3. Modify – Alter, Adjust, Revise, Amend, Adapt
4. Initiate – Begin, Commence, Launch, Establish, Institute
5. Obligate – Require, Compel, Enforce, Mandate

Antonyms

1. Comprehensive- limited, incomplete, narrow, partial, restricted
2. Efficient- inefficient, wasteful, unproductive, ineffective, slow
3. Constructive- destructive, harmful, negative, detrimental, damaging
4. Proactive- reactive, passive, unprepared, hesitant, indifferent
5. Authentic- fake, counterfeit, false, imitation, misleading

Words Often Confused

1. Allude vs. Elude – Allude means to refer indirectly, while Elude means to escape or avoid.
2. Evoke vs. Invoke – Evoke means to bring a feeling or memory to mind, while Invoke means to call upon a higher power or law.
3. Capital vs. Capitol – Capital refers to a city or financial assets, while Capitol is a government building.
4. Especially and Specially- Especially is used to highlight a singular importance or focus, while specially implies customization or adaptation for a certain use.
5. Precede vs. Proceed – Precede means to come before, while Proceed means to continue or move forward.

One-Word Substitutes

1. A person who can do many things well – Versatile
2. To formally put an end to a law or practice – Abolish
3. A short and interesting story about a real incident or person – Anecdote
4. To confirm or give support to a statement or idea – Corroborate
5. A significant stage or event in the development of something- Milestone

24ENG111 English II

Vocabulary development- Set 4

Synonyms

1. Persuade – Convince, Influence, Induce, Sway, Prompt
2. Evaluate – Assess, Appraise, Measure, Analyze, Examine
3. Modify – Alter, Adjust, Revise, Amend, Adapt
4. Initiate – Begin, Commence, Launch, Establish, Institute
5. Obligate – Require, Compel, Enforce, Mandate

Antonyms

1. Comprehensive- limited, incomplete, narrow, partial, restricted
2. Efficient- inefficient, wasteful, unproductive, ineffective, slow
3. Constructive- destructive, harmful, negative, detrimental, damaging
4. Proactive- reactive, passive, unprepared, hesitant, indifferent
5. Authentic- fake, counterfeit, false, imitation, misleading

Words Often Confused

1. Allude vs. Elude – Allude means to refer indirectly, while Elude means to escape or avoid.
2. Evoke vs. Invoke – Evoke means to bring a feeling or memory to mind, while Invoke means to call upon a higher power or law.
3. Capital vs. Capitol – Capital refers to a city or financial assets, while Capitol is a government building.
4. Especially and Specially- Especially is used to highlight a singular importance or focus, while specially implies customization or adaptation for a certain use.
5. Precede vs. Proceed – Precede means to come before, while Proceed means to continue or move forward.

One-Word Substitutes

1. A person who can do many things well – Versatile
2. To formally put an end to a law or practice – Abolish
3. A short and interesting story about a real incident or person – Anecdote
4. To confirm or give support to a statement or idea – Corroborate
5. A significant stage or event in the development of something- Milestone

24ENG111 English II

Vocabulary development- Set 5

Synonyms

1. Consolidate – combine, merge, integrate, synthesize, amalgamate
2. Neglect – ignore, overlook, disregard, omit, bypass
3. Acquisition- purchase, accession, investment, possession
4. Accentuate – highlight, emphasize, stress, underscore, amplify
5. Articulate – express, convey, communicate, enunciate, verbalize

Antonyms

1. Pragmatic – Idealistic, Unrealistic, Impractical, Visionary, Hypothetical
2. Concise – Lengthy, Wordy, Redundant, Elaborate, Rambling
3. Coherent – Incoherent, Confused, Disorganized, Illogical, Jumbled
4. Sceptical – Gullible, Trusting, Naïve, Convincible, Unsuspecting
5. Legitimate – Illegal, Unlawful, Fraudulent, Illegitimate, Unauthorized

Words Often Confused

1. Adverse vs. Averse – "Adverse" means harmful or unfavourable, while "Averse" means strongly opposed to something.
2. Everyday (adjective) vs. Every day (adverbial phrase) - Everyday means common, ordinary, or routine. Example: Wearing formal clothes is not an everyday habit for me. Every day means each day individually. Example: I check my emails every day before work.
3. Device vs. Devise- Device is a noun that refers to an object, machine, or piece of equipment that has been made for some special purpose, as in "electronic devices." Devise is a verb that means "to invent or plan something that is difficult or complicated," as in "devising a new method for converting sunlight into electricity."
4. Envelop vs. Envelope - Envelop is a verb that means "to completely enclose or surround someone or something," as in "she enveloped the baby in the blanket." Envelope is a noun that refers to an enclosing cover for a letter, card, etc.
5. Loose vs. Lose - Loose means something not being tight or tightly fastened, attached, or held. Lose is a verb with various meanings typically having to do with being unable to find, keep, or hold something, as in "I keep losing my keys."

One-Word Substitutes

1. A person with the ability to speak persuasively – Orator
2. A situation requiring a difficult choice between two undesirable options – Dilemma
3. A person who opposes or fights against something – Adversary
4. To increase the severity of a problem or situation – Exacerbate
5. A person who doubts or questions everything – Skeptic

24ENG111 English II

Set 6

Synonyms

1. Recruit – Hire, Employ, Onboard, Enlist, Appoint
2. Retain – Keep, Maintain, Preserve, Sustain, Uphold
3. Engagement – Involvement, Participation, Commitment, Dedication, Connection
4. Diversity – Inclusion, Variety, Heterogeneity, Multiplicity, Plurality
5. Lucrative- profitable, gainful, remunerative

Antonyms

1. Motivated – Uninspired, Disengaged, Indifferent, Apathetic, Lethargic
2. Inclusive – Exclusive, Restrictive, Limited, Biased, Discriminatory
3. Ethical – Unethical, Corrupt, Dishonest, Immoral, Unprincipled
4. Scarce- plentiful, abundant, copious, ample, lavish

Words Often Confused

1. Job vs. Role – Job refers to a specific position in an organization, while Role refers to the responsibilities within that job.
2. Salary vs. Wages – Salary is a fixed regular payment (monthly/annually), while Wages are hourly or daily earnings.
3. Layoff vs. Termination – Layoff happens due to company decisions (not performance-related), while Termination is dismissal due to cause.
4. Leader vs. Manager – Leader inspires and guides, while Manager oversees and controls operations.
5. Training vs. Development – Training focuses on specific job skills, while Development focuses on long-term growth.

One-Word Substitutes

1. The process of hiring employees – Recruitment
2. The ability to understand and manage emotions in the workplace – Emotional Intelligence
3. A workplace practice ensuring equal opportunities for all – Diversity Management
4. The process of integrating new employees into an organization – Onboarding
5. A company's core beliefs and guiding principles – Organizational Values

24ENG111 English II

Set 3

Synonyms

1. Persuade - convince, influence, urge, sway, coax
2. Delegate - assign, entrust, authorize, appoint, designate
3. Comprehend - understand, grasp, perceive, interpret, discern
4. Remedy - correct, rectify, fix, amend, resolve
5. Enhance - improve, augment, strengthen, elevate, boost

Antonyms

1. Tactful - blunt, insensitive, harsh, rude, undiplomatic
2. Productive - unproductive, inefficient, idle, wasteful, counterproductive
3. Genuine - fake, artificial, fraudulent, false, deceptive
4. Prosperous - struggling, poor, destitute, failing, unsuccessful
5. Composed - agitated, anxious, disturbed, restless, flustered

One-Word Substitutes

1. To officially end or cancel something - Abolish
2. To speak or write in favour of something - Advocate
3. To examine carefully before deciding - Evaluate
4. To reduce the intensity of something unpleasant - Alleviate
5. To formally express disapproval - Reprimand

Words Often Confused

1. Assure vs. Ensure: "Assure" means to give confidence, while "Ensure" means to make certain.
2. Economic vs. Economical: "Economic" relates to the economy, while "Economical" means cost-effective.
3. Disinterested vs. Uninterested: "Disinterested" means impartial, while "Uninterested" means lacking interest.
4. Evoke vs. Invoke: "Evoke" means to bring a feeling to mind, while "Invoke" means to call upon authority or assistance.
5. Judicial vs. Judicious: "Judicial" relates to judges or courts, while "Judicious" means showing good judgment.